LSU SOCCER ON THE SEC NETWORK

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN have a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create a multi-platform SEC Network which launched in August 2014. The SEC Network and its accompanying digital platform airs SEC content 24/7, including more than 1,000 events annually.

LSU SOCCER STADIUM

The LSU Soccer Stadium has traditionally been a difficult place for visiting teams to play as the Tigers have posted a strong 147-87-33 home record for a .600 winning percentage over the first 27 seasons in program history.

The LSU Soccer Stadium has received extensive renovations in recent years as the program continues its ascent to the pinnacle of the SEC and the NCAA. The venue is now a home worthy of an emerging power in women's college soccer.

In March 2011, construction teams broke ground on Phase 2 of the renovation as $2.3 million was invested to transform the facility while creating additional seating, installing new lighting and building a new press box for the media and concession stand and restrooms for the LSU supporters to enjoy.

By adding a second level of bleacher seating to the existing structure, the official capacity of the LSU Soccer Stadium increased to 2,197, easily accommodating a fanbase that has created one of the more intimidating home-field advantages in the SEC. In addition, new gates were built on the west side of the complex with brick columns throughout. New gating was also installed at the top of the bleachers.

In the spring of 2019, a new home locker room was added to the west side of the current on site facility. The facility now houses a team meeting room, a brand new locker room, new locker room for coaches and it features a renovated officials' locker room as well.

Fans attending matches at the LSU Soccer Stadium also benefit from the addition of the permanent concession stand located directly below the press box. With the building of two new restrooms at the facility, it now features a total of four as men's and women's facilities are located at both ends of the stadium.

Members of the media also enjoy a functional press box that has been constructed to make the covering of matches a state-of-the-art experience. Not only does the press box interior measure 333 square feet, but hard-wired internet is available across the work space along with a wireless internet signal that has long been accessible in previous seasons. In addition, television cameras and videographers have access to the crow's nest installed on the roof of the press box in a space that also features hard-wired internet access.

The Tigers have been a formidable foe at the LSU Soccer Stadium over the years. LSU's initial season in 1995 was played on the University High field adjacent to the football practice facility and ever since 1996 the Tigers have called LSU Soccer Stadium home.

The Tigers have posted a winning home record in 18 of the 25 seasons played at LSU

The LSU Soccer Stadium saw the 2007 and 2015 seasons standing out the most with unbeaten records on the home pitch. 2007 saw the Tigers go 5-0-3 and 2015's unbeaten record at home was 8-0-4.

The impressive run with an unbeaten 5-0-3 home slate in 2007 was followed by an impressive 8-1 campaign in 2008, a 7-1-2 season in 2009, a 6-2-1 mark in 2010 and a stellar 7-1-1 season in 2011. While winning four SEC Western Division championships and making four trips to the NCAA Tournament from 2007-11, the Tigers posted a 33-5-7 record with a .811 winning percentage. They most recently finished the 2015 season unbeaten at home with an 8-0-4 mark in 12 matches played in Baton Rouge.

In fact, LSU's home performance is highlighted by a school record 18-game home unbeaten streak that came to an end on Oct. 26, 2008, with a 2-1 defeat to the No. 6-ranked Florida Gators.

2022 marked the 27th season in the life of the LSU Soccer Stadium, which was first opened on Sept. 13, 1996, when the Tigers hosted SEC rival Tennessee.

The 2021 season saw multiple record breaking moments for the Tigers. LSU had the longest winning streak in the program with eight straight victories. The soccer stadium also saw a record breaking attendance in the 2021 season. In the Tigers match against Mississippi State on September 17, a crowd of 3,021 people showed out to watch the Tigers defeat the Bulldogs 2-0 at home. The attendance marked the highest in program history. LSU averaged 1,334 fans per home match during the 2021 season to set the program record, and that average ranked as the 12th highest in the nation.

In 2022, Hudson drew in the sixth largest crowd in program history against Missouri with 2,004 fans on September 22.

This year, Hudson and the Tigers continued to shatter LSU Soccer Stadium attendance records as they welcomed another Top-10 crowd in program history in a conference matchup against Florida.

2018 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Chapman Wins Olympic Gold Medal in Tokyo

Allysha Chapman helped the Canadian National Team to its first ever Olympic gold medal at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. She's now a two-time Olympic medalist and has represented Canada at two World Cups.

CHAPMAN ENJOYS QUICK RISE IN CANADIAN RANKS

Chapman burst onto the scene as one of the first names on John Herdman's team sheet for the Canadian Women's National Team since making her full international debut with the squad on Oct. 25, 2014, in a friendly match against 2011 World Cup Champion Japan.

"Chappy" has gone on to earn 83 international caps with 66 starts for Canada at the senior level dating back to 2014 while being the team's top option at the starting left back for that period. She scored her first international goal with the winner in the 51st minute for a 1-0 win over Italy in the semifinal round of the 2015 Cypress Women's Cup.

A three-time All-SEC performer and the 2011 SEC Defensive Player of the Year during her collegiate career, Chapman's professional career has taken off after playing her final season with the Tigers in the fall of 2011. She joined the Houston Dash of the National Women's Soccer League before the 2015 season as an allocated national team player from her former club team Eskilstuna United DFF in Sweden. Chapman played two years with the Dash before being traded to the Boston Breakers in November 2016. She has now returned to the Houston Dash and played in Houston the last two seasons.

Before reigniting her international career at the senior level, Chapman was a two-year member of Canada's Under-20 Women's National Team, even appearing at the 2008 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Chile.

2015 WORLD CUP

Chapman helped anchor a Canadian back line that conceded just one goal to its opponents in three group stage matches as the home nation advanced to the knockout rounds at the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup with a 1-1 draw against The Netherlands in their third and final group match held at Olympic Stadium in Montreal. Canada finished atop Group A with five points while also blanking China, 1-0, in the opening match of the tournament and playing New Zealand to a 0-0 draw to earn five points.

Thanks to Josée Bélanger's goal in the 52nd minute and Chapman leading a dogged defensive display from the hosts, Canada advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup with a 1-0 shutout of Switzerland in their Round of 16 match at BC Place Stadium in Vancouver.

With 53,885 supporters on hand at BC Place Stadium – a record crowd for a Canadian men's and women's national team in any sport – Canada earned its place in the World Cup quarterfinals for the first time since 2003 while competing in the knockout rounds for just the second time in six appearances all-time in the tournament.

With Chapman anchoring a Canadian back line surrendering just one goal in four matches going into their match against England in the quarters, the hosts were confident for a return to the tournament semifinals for the first time since 2003 when Canada earned its best finish of third place, but England pulled out a 2-1 over Canada.

2019 WORLD CUP

Chapman helped anchor Canada's backline that gave up only two goals and recorded two shutouts during the first three matches of the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup to help the Canadian's advance to the Round of 16.

Canada opened up the World Cup with a 1-0 win over Cameroon on June 10, and then they blanked New Zealand 2-0 on June 15. The Netherlands defeated Canada in their final group play match on June 20 by a tally of 2-1.

Chapman played a part in all four decisions for Canada while earning three starts. She now owns a career 68 international caps for Canada at the senior level dating back to the fall of 2014. Chapman logged a total 258 minutes in the first four matches; Canada was knocked out in the Round of 16 by Sweden (L, 1-0).

A three-time All-SEC defender and the 2011 SEC Defender of the Year while at LSU, Chapman has been consistent on the professional level. Chapman remains as the only LSU soccer play to play in the FIFA Women's World Cup.

2020 NWSL CHAMPION

Chapman helped the Houston Dash win its first ever National Women's Soccer League championship in club history on July 26 at Rio Tinto Stadium. The Dash beat the Chicago Red Stars by a final score of 2-0 in the NWSL Challenge Cup Final.

Chapman earned the starting nod at leftback and played the full 90 minutes as the Dash earned their third shutout of the Challenge Cup. Chapman, who has been with the Dash for four seasons, felt like this achievement has been a long time in the making.

"I just feel like it's about time," Chapman said in an interview with nwslsoccer.com prior to Sunday's championship match. "We haven't been able to make the playoffs and have underachieved, in my eyes, for several years. It's a relief that the team is now validated, in a way.

The Dash got off to a quick start and took the lead early when Sophie Schmidt converted a penalty in the fifth minute of the match to give Houston a 1-0 lead. Shea Groom sealed the deal in the early stages of stoppage time (91st minute) for the Dash with a goal to finish off the job.

2020 TOKYO OLYMPICS

Allysha Chapman is an Olympic gold medalist after Canada knocked off Sweden in penalties on Friday morning in the gold medal match at the Yokohama International Stadium.

Chapman earned the start on the backline, her fourth of the Olympics, and played all the way into the first extra time stanza as she was subbed out in the 93rd minute of play. Sweden took the lead in the 34th minute, but a 67th minute penalty kick conversion by Jesse Fleming leveled things up for the Canadian side at one apiece.

The match would go to penalties to decide the gold. Canada took a 1-0 advantage in penalties after the first round of the shootout before failing to score any of their next three attempts. After three rounds, Sweden led 2-1 and the hopes for Canada looked dim. Sweden and Canada both had their shots denied in the fourth round before Sweden's gold-medal winning attempt sailed high in the fifth round. Canada's Deanne Rose stepped up and cashed in the fifth round attempt to bring things level at two. In the first round of the sudden death portion of the shootout, Sweden's attempt was saved, and then Julia Grosso sealed the deal for Canada with a conversion. Canada won the shootout by a tally of 3-2.

It was the first ever Olympic gold medal match that went to a shootout and it marks the first Olympic gold medal for Canada. Chapman, who became LSU soccer's first player to ever earn a medal at the Olympics, is now a two-time Olympic medalist with gold this summer and then a bronze from the 2016 Rio Olympics.

- 3-time First-Team All-SEC Selection

Each year, the Heisman Trophy Trust presents the famed Heisman Trophy to the most outstanding college football player in the country. In the sport of college soccer, athletes from across the country compete each season for the right to raise the Hermann Trophy as the premier soccer player in the NCAA as presented by the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis.

Considered the highest honor in intercollegiate soccer, the recipient of the Hermann Trophy is selected each year by Division I head coaches who are certified members of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. After releasing the Hermann Trophy Watch List each preseason, the field is then cut to 15 semifinalists in November before three finalists are named prior to the NCAA Women's College Cup in early December.

The LSU Soccer program has been represented on the Hermann Trophy Watch List twice in its history as former Tiger All-American Malorie Rutledge was recognized as one of the top players in the country by the Missouri Athletic Club. While Rutledge never made the cut as one of the award's 15 semifinalists, she certainly earned a reputation as being one of the elite talents in all of college soccer with a brilliant four-year career from 2006-09.
